Green means not forgetting!

Food, fun and bargains galore are promised for this year's "green" event. Sooke's community-minded businesses and organizations will showcase their sustainable services, products, programs and projects to help you remember how you can contribute to Sooke becoming a greener, more sustainable community.

In keeping with our green theme, we have invited some special guests this year:

T'Sou-ke First Nation will share their exciting demonstration project that is paving the way for them to become a sustainable solar community.

Sooke Region Food CHI Society will showcase their projects designed to improve access to local, affordable, healthy food and cuisine.

Sooke Country Market, an enthusiastic group whose members "Make it, Bake it or Grow it!" will re-locate to SEAPARC for this event.

Sooke Garden Club, Trinity Anglican Church and St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church are joining forces to host an outdoor plant sale.

Something new that we are testing out this year is "BUY NOW" for folks that can't be at the close of the silent auction and want to buy something to support Rotary or see an item they NEED to have! A limited number of items will be designated "BUY NOW" and if you're willing to pay 100% of the value, you can take it away with you at any time during the day. Items are identified in this flyer with a BN icon.

Everyone's invited, from new Sooke to old Sooke, from bargain hunters to brazen bidders, young and old. Just for coming through the door, you get a free chance at winning this year's door prize—a beautiful flower arrangement from Sooke Flower House!! Last year nearly a thousand people visited the show and this year's event is expected to be equally popular.

Businesses and individuals have donated close to 500 auction items, cash, raffle prizes and services valued at over $53,000. Items run the gamut from the basic (96 rolls of toilet paper) to the luxurious (Thalasso and Aromatherapy Treatment). We've got firewood by the cord and by the logging truck. Landscaping your yard? We've got services like backhoe time and tree pruning and supplies from topsoil to gravel to garden art. Maybe you're renovating and need a new toilet - we've got two deluxe models plus lots more in the Builders Corner! Or perhaps

Top value items display SOOKE's unique character

Special Event Accommodation for 30 at Grouse Nest Resort ($3,000)

"Magazine gal - Vogue" mosaic, OverAndover Mosaics ($2,500)

Logging truck load of firewood from Western Forest Products ($1,000)

Toilet, comfort height, low flush, with slow close seat, installed donated by Baker's Mechanical & Plumbing ($700)

3 nights stay in two bdrm oceanfront suite at Sooke Harbour Resort & Marina ($700)

32" Sony Bravia LCD TV donated by Stellar Homes Ltd ($700)

Rosewood Carving from Malawi donated by Christie Johnson ($500)

you're planning a small wedding or family reunion and dream of a wonderful setting like the Grouse Nest Resort.

Who knows what will be most popular auction items? Last year Rotarian Neil Flynn recalls that the Grouse Nest event accommodation for 15 couples was the hottest item and we have it again! Rotarian Jeannette Wilford predicts that this year "the Vogue mosaic (and its worthy cause), four-count 'em--four PADI diving courses, the IPOD and the 32" TV will all generate fierce bidding. From fine art to car batteries, discover all these things and more as you explore the live and silent auction items listed on the following pages.

Since its beginning in 1991, Treasurer Patrick Fallon says this event has generated about $240,000 in support for the local community. These funds have been invested in significant capital projects like the Skateboard Park and the Rotary Pier and most recently, the bus for SEAPARC youth programs. They fund annual bursaries, leadership and literacy programs and grants for many local non-profit organizations. In addition, individual Rotarians contribute to overseas programs that include building a school in Malawi, creating sustainable, clean water supplies, polio eradication and disaster relief.

Why You Should Attend

This year's Rotary International theme is "Make dreams real". By joining us at our annual Auction & Spring Fair on May 2nd you can make dreams for our community come true and maybe get a great deal in the bargain. It's a chance for you to meet your neighbours, reacquaint yourself with old friends and make new ones.

Discover what the Sooke region has to offer! Get an extraordinary piece of art or a gift for Mothers Day—you just never know what you'll find. Educate yourself at one of the community organization booths or ask a question or share your opinion with one of our local politicians. Bring the kids or the grandkids, browse around the booths, and have a bite to eat. The EMCS Culinary Arts Café will serve delicious snacks and lunches again this year and Sooke Firefighters are offering sizzling steaks to tide you over between the silent and live auctions. Plan to stay for dinner and conveniently get the advantage over your competitor by placing those last minute silent auction bids!

Local businesses and private persons always give generously to this event, our major annual fundraiser. All of the proceeds come back to the community in the form of bursaries and scholarships for local students and support for local programs and projects. This year's auction theme is "Green means not forgetting". I don't know about you but for me being green takes a conscious effort on my part; remembering to take my bags into the grocery store, remembering to separate the recyclables and remembering to put them out on the correct days. It is purposeful activity focused on making our community a greener place. This year's event features many local community organizations that are working in exciting and innovative ways towards a more sustainable environment.

So come for the bargains, the people and for Sooke. I expect to see you there! Look me up. Saturday - SEAPARC arena. Don't forget!

"Magazine gal - Vogue" is one in a series of mosaics inspired by fashion magazine art covers from 1920's-30's. The 26 x 32 inch mosaic, made entirely from broken bits and pieces of china as well as found beach crockery, has been generously donated for auction by East Sooke artist Norene Schmuck with the proceeds to benefit Nicole Bottles, a young neighbour who is battling chronic Lyme disease.
